

WAYS TO PARTICIPATE IN CREATIVE WEEK CAPE TOWN AS A CREATIVE CITIZEN

Here are 4 great ways you can participate in Creative Week 2014:

1. BE INSPIRED.

Your attendance at Creative Week speaks volumes, so vote with your presence and help to support the local creative sector – all while enjoying the full spectrum of creativity in Cape Town.

2. BE A CREATIVE WEEK AMBASSADOR

Help support the creative sector in Cape Town by spreading the word about Creative Week. Share the crowdsourced events calendar with your friends, interact with event organisers online and let us know what you like (and don't) about this year's event – we always love to hear from you. Email us at creative@capetownpartnership.co.za, and for more details visit www.creativeweekct.co.za

3. STAY UP TO DATE.

Visit www.creativeweekct.co.za to discover the full calendar of Creative Week events. Connect with us on Facebook and join the conversation on Twitter using @CreativeCT and #CreativeWeek

4. EXPOSE YOUR CHILDREN TO CREATIVITY.

Many of events are fun for the whole family, so don't leave the kids at home! Bring everybody along!

WHAT IS CREATIVE WEEK?

Start where you are, use what you have and make what you can to celebrate everyday creativity from Saturday 13 September to Sunday 21 September 2014.

Creative Week is an annual celebration of creativity, innovation and culture, crowdsourced by Capetonians and coordinated by Creative Cape Town. It is an opportunity to experience the city's artistic energy and diversity while the Loeries are in town.

START

WHERE YOU ARE

SHARE YOUR CREATIVE WEEK EXPERIENCE:

Spread the word about Creative Week Cape Town by sharing your thoughts, videos and images on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram. Be sure to use #CreativeWeek when sharing your experience.

